The magic of a connected website and CRM

When a website and a CRM are integrated great things happen:

- Know your leads behavior and the best time to engage.
- Follow the lead from the first time they visited your site to the closing table.
- Know when a lead or client comes back to your site and continues their search.
- Understand what lead sources are giving you the best ROI.
- Chat with your leads while they search your website.
- Seamlessly provide value to a client so you retain them for life.
